Clothed in these poor mor - tal bo - dies we groan,
Our out - er na - ture is was - ting a - way;
Know that if this earth - ly tent we live in,
Can - cer does ra - vage and strokes steal a - way,

Long - ing each day for our hea - ven - ly home.
In - side we're be - ing re - newed ev - ery day.
Should be de - stroyed by bro - ken - ess and sin,
Know these af - flic - tions will not win the day.

Plagued with af - flic - tions we're be - ing pre - pared To Eyes of faith fo - cus not on what we see; But We have a home that was not made by hand, A Brief are our troub - les, so fear not the strife; For wear the bright gar - ment Christ has for us there.
